REFLECTION!

Memory has pangs that no time can assuage,

And keen is the grief on the mind,

Those are sorrows which bid defiance to age, Often sad is the lot of mankind!

Pleasure to pain is nearly allied, And our prospects are frequent Twas happy for man if he were de-The power of regretting the past.

COUNTER-REFLECTION

Mem'ry 'tis true, will refre to the pain. But it dwells on the past with enes of our youth we run over

And our ideas dance to the meas Then happy it is that your wishes are vain.

WHEELER'S LOT

Messrs. Editors:—In your notice of the match game between the American and Pequounock Baseball clubs, occurs an error in regard to the time of the game. It will be pilayed on the grounds of the Americans north of the Wheeler & Wilson Mfg. Co., on Tuesday, May 15, 1866, at 2 o'clock p. m. The Horse Railroad will afford those who desire to witness this game excellent facilities, as usual, for attending, and there will be seats provided for visitors.

WERE ATTACKED BY ROUGHS
The Knowlton street gang were heard from again last night, and this time their exploits were boider than any of their past offences. Two respectable East Side young men who were walking to their home a little after 10 o'clock, were assailed at the castern extraralty of the railroad bridge, and before help arrived, were beaten and kicked, and one of them robbed. The victims were Michael robbed. The victims were Michael J. O'Reilly and Henry Paul. The latter is the well known barber. Messrs. O'Reilly and Paul would not be able to identify their assailants.

Learn why so many folks you know have paid us $1 in the past two days and ordered the Hoosier delivered to their homes. These neighbors will have many hours to spare when most women still are plodding yound their kitchens preparing meals or putting away supplies or tidying up.

Hoosier has places for 400 articles all handily arranged at your fingers' ends. But don't think it is merely a "shelf-room" cabinet. The Hoosier is really an "automatic servant." It has 40 features that aid you in cooking and save you time and labor.

Its perfect construction surpasses all other cabinets made:

Hoosier's Shaker Flour Sifter makes flour fluffy and light Works faster than rotary sifter. Avoids grit or broken wire. Can't wear out.

Hoosier's Revolving Spice Castor puts the spices you need at your fin-ger tips. No danger of knocking over any or spilling them.

Hoosier's Double-Acting Sugar Bin is the only sugar bin from which sugar can be taken with equal ease from top or bottom; has three times the capacity of most bins.

Hoosiers are made with Hinge doors r full view Roll doors above the ase. The Hinge doors have remarkably convenient utensil trays. The Roll doors are open—no pockets or cubby-holes. The price has only 50c

Remember, there are Hoosiers for farms, camps, apartments, big kitchens, little ones, for window spaces and the center of big kitchens. No further need for oldfashioned, built-in, uncleanable cupboards.

you think that you can't spare the time to come, then you confess that you need a Hoosier badly, because it will give you so many spare hours for a lifetime. Come see this Gold Medal demonstration tomorrow. Get our low prices and money-back offer. And please bring some friend with you.
